

OLLI
Indiana State University

WEDNESDAY PRESENTATION

Wednesday
October 9

1:30 p.m.
Cunningham Memorial
Library
Event Center

COLD CASE: ONE OF TWO

Sheriff Derek Fell and Captain John Moats of the Vigo County Sheriff's Office present the case of a female victim found stabbed to death in a residence in the late 1990s. At the time of the murder, there were two primary suspects but no arrests were made. Fifteen years later, the case was reopened and examined. What happened next? Attend this presentation to find out!

SHERIFF DEREK FELL CAPTAIN JOHN MOATS

Sheriff Derek Fell is a life-long resident of Vigo County and has served with the Vigo County Sheriff's Office since 2002. Sheriff Fell graduated from Indiana State University with a degree in criminology, and he has served in various positions within the Sheriff's Office including patrol, criminal investigations, cold case detective, and crime scene investigator.

Captain John Moats has served with the Vigo County Sheriff's Office for 25 years and is currently captain of operations. Previous roles within the Sheriff's Office include patrol deputy, detective, crime scene investigator, cold case detective, and chief deputy under a previous administration.

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute is a forum for adults of all academic backgrounds to learn about a wide variety of interesting and engaging topics.

Indstate.edu/community-engagement/olli