MEET COACH GRAVES!

Coach Graves will speak about his Indiana basketball journey from his experience as a local high school basketball superstar, his time playing college ball at Butler University, and his experiences coaching alongside the likes of former Butler Coach and current World Champion Boston Celtics General Manager Brad Stevens. Coach Graves will then provides the audience with a behind-the-scenes look at the recruiting process and what it takes to recruit student athletes to ISU. This is a “must-see” presentation and a great way to launch the new-look OLLI at ISU Wednesday Presentation series!
