ONE NIGHT ONLY!

DECEMBER 10, 2024, 4-6 pm

LOCATION: Bare-Montgomery Gallery (Fairbanks Hall)

230 North 7th Street, Terre Haute, IN 47809

CURATED BY: Students in the ARTH481, Curatorial Practice Class.

For this one-night-only pop-up exhibition, this semester's eight Curatorial Practice students use miniature models to curate work by artists of their choosing. By consolidating the gallery to a scaled-down, 3D version of Indiana State University's own Turman Gallery, the students are able to approach curation as a medium to deliberately communicate what about their artist appeals to them. This was facilitated by delving into the entire curation process, from proposal, to design, to promotion. Following this process, the students incorporated interactive elements for the viewers to become part of each mini exhibition. Petite Perspectives explores works by a wide variety of artists. Each are interpreted by the individual students to appeal to a contemporary audience.

All exhibitions are free and open to the public!
