

Charles E. Brown African American Cultural Center Presents

Black History Month Kickoff Celebration

Marc Lamont Hill

Professor of urban education at the CUNY Graduate Center and host of the
"Coffee & Books" podcast

EXPAND YOUR WORLD

Dr. Hill is a professor of urban education at the CUNY Graduate Center in New York City. Previously, he was the Steve Charles Professor of Media, Cities, and Solutions at Temple University. He has also held positions at Columbia University and Morehouse College.

Since his days as a youth in Philadelphia, Dr. Hill has been a social justice activist and organizer. He has worked on campaigns to end the death penalty, abolish prisons, and release numerous political prisoners. Dr. Hill has also worked in solidarity with human rights movements around the world. He is the founder and director of The People's Education Center in Philadelphia, as well as the owner of Uncle Bobbie's Coffee & Books. Ebony Magazine has named him one of America's 100 most influential Black leaders.

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

February 3 • 7:00 PM
TILSON AUDITORIUM

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Black History Month Kickoff Social Hour 5:30 pm though 6:00 pm (Heritage Ballroom)

Black History Month Program 6:00 pm to 6:45 pm (Heritage Ballroom)