

OLLI Wednesday Series

BANJO STRINGS & DOCTOR THINGS

~A LIFE IN TWO WORLDS~

Dr. John Wheat transitioned from a celebrated banjo player and recording artist in Nashville to a dedicated physician serving rural Clinton, Indiana. Renowned for his musical talent, Dr. Wheat's journey took him from the vibrant stages of Music City to the compassionate realm of healthcare. In this captivating session, he will share his remarkable life story, intertwining anecdotes from his musical career with his experiences as a physician.

Free & open to the public
Cunningham Memorial Library
Event Center
April 9th

1:30pm to 3:00pm

