

Women's Equality Day

August 25-26 2022

Library Events Area, Cunningham Memorial Library

The 19th Amendment to the US Constitution says that “The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.” This amendment was signed into law on August 26, 1920. In 1973 Congress designated August 26 “Women’s Equality Day.”

In observation of the anniversary of the 19th Amendment, we have a few presentations this Thursday and Friday.

Thurs, August 25,

11-12:15

Dr. Jeannie Ludlow, "Sobering and Personal": Abortion after Roe

Friday, August 26

9am, 10am and noon

Dr. Ruth Fairbanks, “A Citizenship of Her Own: The 19th Amendment and the Cable Act”

1pm

Dr. Debra Israel, “Gender Disparities in Developing Economies”

These events are sponsored by:

Gender Studies, the Department of Multidisciplinary Studies, the Cunningham Memorial Library and the Schellenberg Social Justice and Community Endowed Fund